Chief Clerk of the House

FROM: James A. Davenport, Executive Director

This bill, if enacted, will provide that the district attorney general and the clerk of the court shall have the costs of collection defrayed for all fines, costs, and litigation taxes collected after they are in default.

The fiscal impact from enactment of this bill is estimated to be a decrease in state revenues from litigation tax; however, such decrease in revenues is estimated to be not significant.

Enactment of this bill is also estimated to result in an increase in local government revenues from recovery of costs for collecting fines, taxes, and court costs in default; however such increase in revenues is estimated to be not significant.

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.
